TEMPLE GOOD VOTE GETTER

Newly Elected Congressman Carries Entire District by 17,000 Plurality

LEAD IN LAWRENCE 6,500

The latest unofficial returns from all three counties of the 24th congressional district, with only a few precincts missing in Beaver give Dr. Henry W. Temple the Republican candidate for congress a plurality of more than 17,000 over his Democratic opponent, C. E. Gibson.

The judgeship contests in Beaver and Lawrence counties resulted in one of the largest votes being cast in the history of either county. While both the wets and dries were working for their particular candidate for judge, all of them were apparently voting for Dr. Temple for congress. In the city of New Castle with the vote of two precincts missing, Dr. Temple has 3,017 votes to 457 for Gibson, almost seven to one. The first precinct of the Third ward gave Temple has 3,017 votes to 457 for Gibson, almost seven to one. The first precinct of the Third ward gave Temple has 3,017 votes to 457 for Gibson, almost seven to one. The first precinct of the Third ward gave Temple has 3,017 votes to 457 for Gibson, almost seven to one.

In Beaver county the result was practically the same, Temple carrying practically every precinct, and some of them by phenomenal pluralities. He carried the First ward of Beaver by 280 to 34; the Third ward, 201 to 34; Woodlawn, 412 to 58; Midland borough, 274 to 44 and so on throughout the county.

In the first sixty precincts tabulated Dr. Temple has lost but two and these by pluralities of 3 and 6 votes each. With a plurality of 6,500 already secured in Lawrence county a plurality of more than 5,000 in Washington county and an estimated plurality in Beaver county of 5,500, the official returns are likely to show that Temple's aggregate plurality in the district will be close to or exceed 17,000 the largest ever given a Republican candidate for congress in the 24th district.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION CONCERT MUCH ENJOYED

Monessen Male Chorus Appears Here in Benefit Affair—Soleos Are Features.

An entertaining program was presented at the high school auditorium by the Monessen Male chorus under direction of Prof. R. W. Davies. The concert was given as a benefit for the CharleROI Free Library Association and while the crowd was not large the musical renditions were of much excellence. The soloists were W. O. Williams, Thomas Dobson, J. W. Jeffries, Marion Kinder and Horace Nutt. Misses Elizabeth Treasure and Beryl Thomas played a piano duet, "Country Dance." Ethelbert Nevins, George Bull played a violin solo, "The Son of Puszta." Kellar Bela and Mrs. D. J. McMahon gave a reading as special features of the program. Messrs Jack and Richard Harvey sang a solo and a quartet that sang pleasingly "The Lost Chord" was composed of Messrs Kinder, Preston, Preston and Nutt. The concluding numbers were male chorus numbers "I Hear You Calling Me," Marshall Lucas and "The Star Spangled Banner," arranged by Vogerich.

M'COY DIES; WAS RUN OVER BY CAR

From injuries received when run over by a car late Monday night near Wickerham stop, John McCoy died at the CharleROI Monessen hospital at 11:50 o'clock this morning. In the Memorial hospital at Monongahela McCoy's wife is critically ill and her death would not cause any surprise. Four children of the couple aged from 3 to 11 years are being cared for by relatives.

Mrs. McCoy was taken to the Monongahela hospital on Monday. It is supposed that McCoy that night wandered along the tracks of the Pittsburgh-CharleROI line to Wickerham stop, where he laid down and fell asleep.

At the hospital McCoy never regained consciousness. He suffered from concussion of the brain and shock and an arm was so badly crushed that amputation was made necessary Friday night. McCoy was formerly a brakeman employed at McKees Rocks on the P. & L. E. road.

THOMPSON CREDITORS ARE NOT ALL PLEASED

Are Rather Dissatisfied at Outlook for Receiving Any Funds—Thompson Not to Return Yet From New York

Not all of the creditors of J. V. Thompson are satisfied that they will receive any funds in the near future. Many of them estimate it will be a year before they receive anything as the result of the agreement Thompson made in New York, Tuesday, to assign sufficient assets to the creditors' committee to be appointed by Attorney H. S. Dumbauld of the Fayette County Bar Association. These assets are to be assigned over to the committee by the end of the month.

Then the creditors' committee will be required to ascertain whether the assets represent the value Thompson alleges and that will consume some time.

When the committee is satisfied as to the value of the assets, it will be required to find a purchaser for the properties, which will take more time and as one creditor said: "It may be 18 months before any of the creditors get a penny."

According to an attorney who represents a number of creditors of Thompson, the creditors' committee will not sacrifice the assets Thompson is to assign over to them.

BANQUET SERVED AT CLOSE OF CONTEST FOR NEW MEMBERS

First Baptist Church Scene of Interesting Gathering Friday Evening—Rev. Gregg Chief Speaker.

As the climax of two contests for members that were won respectively by the Philathen and the Kings Daughters classes of the First Baptist Sunday School from the Baraca and the Loyal Soldier's classes a supper was served Thursday evening at the church. There were about 50 present comprising nearly all the members of the four classes. After the supper, consisting of fried oysters and other seasonable delicacies was served, speaking was in order. The chief speaker was Rev. A. M. Gregg, pastor of the Monongahela Baptist church, he speaking on "Organized Class Work." Short impromptu talks were given by Rev. W. G. Carl, A. G. Lewis, Floyd Chalfant, Mrs. J. L. Luce and Miss Clara G. Cooper.

CHURCH CASE BEFORE COURT

The differences that have arisen in the Second Baptist congregation colored, Monongahela were aired before Judge R. W. Irwin Thursday. There was an array of witnesses present including the members of the official board of the church and the members. Rev. L. C. Garland, now pastor of a Baptist church at Richmond, Va., and for nine years pastor of the Monongahela church is the person around whom the fight seems to center.

The trouble reached a head on Wednesday evening, October 6, following the mid-week prayer service. What started in a prayer meeting ended in a riot, according to the testimony of witnesses for the church. Rev. L. C. Garland was present at this meeting and when it was announced that the church meeting for the purpose of calling a pastor, would not be held, but was postponed then trouble arose. It was also announced that it had been decided to have the janitor move into the parsonage to secure the property pending the selection of a minister. To this objection were made. The meeting became a riot, according to testimony offered. Several members rushed to the pulpit, Rev. Mr. Garland was threatened and also his wife, who was in the choir and to save further disturbances, Rev. Mr. Garland closed the meeting.

Those opposing him however, held a meeting following the stormy session, appointed a pulpit committee, and decided to proceed to select a pastor. It is understood that those siding with Mr. Garland favored allowing Mr. Garland to direct the affairs of the church for a time paying him a monthly salary. This the opposition objected to, since Mr. Garland had accepted a call to another church.

In the bill filed in the name of the church it is set out that certain persons, Grant Richardson and others had caused disturbances at the church, had insisted in breaking in on meetings, etc. The plaintiff church by its officers, seeks to restrain these defendants from interfering with the affairs of the church.

In a criminal action against the defendants, heard by the grand jury

BARN BURNS WITH CONTENTS

Incendiary Blamed for Fire at Underwood Property Back of Roscoe

QUANTITY OF GRAIN LOST

The barn owned by Joseph H. Underwood on a farm back of Roscoe and used by Robert Jack, who operates the farm, was destroyed by fire with practically all its contents Thursday night near midnight. Though there is little evidence, it is believed the barn was set afire by an incendiary. The loss will approximate $2,500 of which about half will be born by Underwood and the other half by Jack.

In the barn were large quantities of hay, timothy, alfalfa, straw—fact nearly all the summer harvest of grain. Mr. Jack discovered the fire and telephoned to Roscoe for help. It was impossible to control the flames. One calf was burned, but this was all the live stock lost.

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES

No inspired statements from the White House, no ingenious excuses by Democratic spokesmen can explain away the glorious Republican victories in Massachusetts and New Jersey. There may exist differences of opinion as to which state provides the more significant object lesson of the waning influence of the Democratic party at the very time when the country is being urged to "stand by the President," under the specious plea that this is the sole test of patriotism, but there can be no doubt of the overwhelming strength of Republican sentiment in both of these important states and of the extent of the rebuke to Democratic policies that has been administered, says the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph. Massachusetts returns eagerly to the Republican column after five years of Democratic control. There is cause for congratulation in the election of the entire state ticket and particularly in the elevation to the governorship of a man of the calibre of Samuel W. McCall, a scholar, statesman and patriot in every way measuring up to the requirements and traditions of the high office. The party at large will be strengthened by having this notable figure in national councils at the head of Massachusetts' government.

New Jersey, too, President Wilson's own state, where frantic efforts had been directed toward "making a showing" in yesterday's election on the ground that it would be of national significance has decided to put none but Republicans on guard. Republican control of both branches of the legislature is increased. Twice in succession now has New Jersey gone Republican in an "off year" election. Municipal elections in New York state in 18 of the larger cities show 12 Republicans, five Democrats and one Socialist elected mayor. The bearing of these and other Republican victories is unmistakable. He who has eyes to see let him see. Republican rejoicing is eminently justified today. Unquestionably the Democrats are on the toboggan.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved
by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. Riser—1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women if it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
